

TOP 6 RESOURCES FOR STAYING INFORMED

1. FIERCE BIOTECH

A MUST if you're on the business side of biotech & pharma. Content includes updates on IPOs, regulatory approvals, new clinical trial data and M&As.

FierceBiotech

fiercebitech.com/biotech

2. EXOME

Stay up-to-date on topics in your local biotech environment including cancer, immunotherapies and rare diseases. Influencer list by location helps keep you engaged in your local biotech community.

exome

xconomy.com/life-sciences

3. GEN

This site is strictly science. Takes industry topics and gives the science twist. Topics include research highlights from academia and industry R&D as well as regulatory approvals.

GEN Genetic Engineering & Biotechnology News

genengnews.com

4. BIOINFORMANT

The largest stem cell industry blog with daily content on topics related to cell therapy including cord blood banking, genetically engineering immunotherapies and everything stem cell.

BioInformant
Your Global Leader In Stem Cell Industry Data

bioinformant.com

5. CELL CULTURE DISH

For the professional that wants to learn more about process development and manufacturing. Topics covered include new techniques & products that help solve lab issues.

Cell Culture DISH

cellculturedish.com

6. CELL & GENE

Resource for early-stage cell therapy companies with no existing infrastructure or processes. Topics covered include logistics, supply chain, clinical trial design & regulatory hurdles of the commercialization and regulatory landscape of cell therapy.

cell & gene

cellandgene.com